Available for community-based cancer services, education, research and outreach, and for infrastructure and patient support.

Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

The Organization is a not-for-profit corporation that has been recognized as tax-exempt pursuant to Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Organization applies accounting policies that prescribe when to recognize and how to measure the financial statement effects of income tax positions taken or expected to be taken on its income tax returns. These rules require management to evaluate the likelihood that, upon examination by the relevant taxing jurisdictions, those income tax positions would be sustained. Based on that evaluation, the Organization only recognizes the maximum benefit of each income tax position that is more than 50% likely of being sustained. To the extent that all or a portion of the benefits of an income tax position are not recognized, a liability would be recognized for the unrecognized benefits, along with any interest and penalties that would result from disallowance of the position. Should any such penalties and interest be incurred, they would be recognized as operating expenses.

Based on the results of management's evaluation, no liability is recognized in the accompanying statements of financial position for unrecognized income tax positions. Further, no interest or penalties have been accrued or charged to expense as of June 30, 2014 and 2013 or for the years then ended. The Organization's tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities. For federal income tax purposes the tax returns essentially remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the respective filing deadlines of those returns.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official
The Cancer Coalition of South Georgia's employees are provided through Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital. The employees are paid and W-2s are issued by Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital under a direct expense reimbursement basis. Phoebe is responsible for all payroll, benefits and related costs, and the Coalition reimburses the expenditures regularly.

The process for determining compensation of the CEO includes review and approval by independent persons, specifically the Cancer Coalition of South Georgia board Personnel and Compensation Committee and the board Executive Committee, followed by notification of all voting board members. Review includes comparison to compensation for similarly qualified persons in functionally comparable positions at similarly situated organizations, that is, CEOs of other nonprofit organizations of similar size and scope, as well as to national benchmarks. Contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision is accomplished via documentation of reports and responses of the committees in meeting minutes, as well as notification of the full board in board meeting minutes. Additionally, the organization's Staff Evaluation and Compensation Policy provides the process for determining compensation of senior leadership (VP, CFO/COO and Directors) and all other exempt and nonexempt employees. The organization uses the following to establish the compensation of the CEO: Compensation Committee, Form 990 of other organizations, compensation survey, and approval by the Board Executive Committee and Compensation Committee.
